UCR’s Secret Sauce:

The Programs and Support that Enable Students to Succeed

Presentation by:

Brian Haynes

UCR Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs

UCR’s Division of Student Affairs serves UCR’s large and diverse student body with programs that provide resources that are critical to many students’ personal, academic and professional success. Part of the student experience is about fun - UCR students can do everything from joining over 300 student organizations and attending campus-sponsored concerts, to using the Student Recreation Center and Student Health Services. Part is about belonging - Student Affairs operates eleven centers that provides focused services to veteran, minority, disabled, foster youth, LGBTQ, and undocumented students. And possibly the most important part is about support - by providing basic needs assistance, counseling, and crisis intervention.

Student Affairs has just completed a new strategic plan, looking at how student support will evolve over the next five years as UCR comes out of the pandemic and continues to grow. With four strategic themes and twenty six objectives, the commitment to the overall success and well-being of every student at UCR has never been greater! Join Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs Brian Haynes at the May 3rd Affiliates “virtual lunch” as he discusses the current and new innovative programming and resources that inform, empower, support, and engage the students of UCR.

Brian Haynes began his appointment as UCR’s vice chancellor for student affairs in August of 2018. He currently oversees and leads a division of 250 staff and administrators in programs that support student engagement and success.

Haynes has spent his entire career in higher education supporting diverse students with a wide range of backgrounds and experiences, most recently serving as vice president for student affairs at Cal State San Bernardino.
